

KEATON & UMBERGER
Gala Art Auction & Sale

Saturday, February 15, 6–9 pm
Wellington B. Gray Gallery

*Welcome to the Keaton & Umberger
Gala Art Auction and Sale!*

We are thrilled that you chose to join us for this exciting event supporting the School of Art and Design at East Carolina University.® The Gala was made possible through the generous donation of artwork from the late Benjamin Franklin Keaton Jr. (ECU alum '57, '61) and the late Wallace Randolph "Ranny" Umberger Jr. For more than 50 years, Keaton and Umberger were supporters of artistic expression in a variety of mediums. In 1998, they founded Long Leaf Opera, which for decades was one of only two opera companies in the Raleigh-Durham area. In 1961, Keaton was the first graduate student to receive a Master of Arts in music from ECU, and he later became a member of ECU's College of Fine Arts and Communication Advancement Council. Through the generosity of Keaton and Umberger, we are able to offer their beautiful collection of art for sale to benefit the School of Art and Design. Their gift will fund numerous scholarships, programs, and events for years to come.

The Gala is the culmination of over two years of work by a vast crew of faculty, staff, students, community members, and Friends of the School of Art and Design. Thank you to our many collaborators for their hard work and dedication to making this event wonderful. And, very special thanks to all our local sponsors for their generosity and willingness to support the School.

Tonight, as we enjoy an evening of art, fellowship, and fun, we rejoice in the artistic legacy of Benjamin Keaton and Ranny Umberger. We hope that you will take home a new treasure that brings joy and beauty to your life—a legacy that Keaton and Umberger would surely celebrate.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of the School of Art and Design,
*Kristi Southern, President, Friends of the School of Art and Design Board &
Kate Bukoski, Director, School of Art and Design*
